25X1 7. [] Met with Mr. Philip Yeager, Counsel, House Science and Astronautics Committee, and advised him that we had completed review of the Library of Congress paper "The Soviet Space Program", and found no security violations. Mr. Yeager advised that in keeping with our prior conversation and this finding, he would discuss with the Chairman the possibility of withdrawing the letter forwarded to the Agency. This would avoid any future inference that might arise from the Agency's informal response, that the Agency had failed to provide the requested review set forth in the Chairman's letter of October 18. Mr. Yeager further suggested that I hold the document and letter received from the Chairman until he has discussed the matter with him. He will then call me.

25X1 9. [] Accompanied Dave Brandwein, FMSAC, to a briefing of Colonel Glenn Smith, Senate Preparedness Investigating Subcommittee staff, on the subject of the Soviet FOB system. Colonel Smith was most interested in the briefing and was most appreciative of Mr. Brandwein's time.

25X1 11. [] Miss Peggy McDonald, in the office of Senator Henry M. Jackson, called asking for our assistance in obtaining information on two individuals who had identified themselves as being associated with the International Volunteer Service under AID. They are [] STAT
[] Miss McDonald said she had contacted AID on this without success. I told her that since these were obviously U.S. citizens, this was more properly a matter for inquiry to the FBI. However, I did tell her I would check and see what I could find out about the organization.
